Nov 20, 2021 · A tree stands alone on a grey slope under a blue and white sky, presenting an aesthetic but bleak and lonely picture. It is the scene of a round-the-clock livestreaming event which has lasted for three days.

History Early history. The tree is believed to have been seeded circa 1750 in what was then the Spanish colony of New Spain. However, due to the invasive nature of traditional dendrochronology, the precise age of the tree is unknown and can only be inferred. Over the centuries the tree has been weathered by the wind and salt spray coming off the Pacific Ocean, gradually altering its …

The Ténéré Tree (French: L'Arbre du Ténéré) was a solitary acacia, of either Acacia raddiana or Acacia tortilis, that was once considered the most isolated tree on Earth—the only one for over 150 kilometres (93 mi). It was a landmark on caravan routes through the Ténéré region of the Sahara Desert in northeast Niger, so well known is it that the Arbre Perdu to the north are the Ténéré Tree.

A tree whose hungry mouth is prest Against the sweet earth's flowing breast; A tree that looks at God all day, And lifts her leafy arms to pray; Because the road was steep and long And through a dark and lonely land, God set upon my lips a song And put a lantern in my hand. Through miles on weary miles of night That stretch relentless in my
